

Index

Tables, figures, and boxes are indicated by t, f, and b following the page number.

- ability to pay 15, 58
 - destination-based tax, and 172
 - origin-based tax, and 136–7
 - taxation according to ability to pay, fairness and 37–8
- ACE see Allowance for Corporate Equity (ACE)
- active and passive income 91–2, 133
 - definitions 90
 - DTCs, under 100
 - source-based taxation, and 94–6
 - see also* passive income
- administration of tax collection
 - administrative and compliance costs, importance of 54
 - compliance costs 53–4
 - developing countries 54
 - ease of administration 53–5
 - country of residence of parent company/ business headquarters 159–60
 - DBCFT, unilateral adoption of 298
 - DBCFT, universal adoption of 294
 - destination country as reform option, costs and 173
 - existing regime 122–3
 - formulary apportionment, and 145–7
 - RPAI, unilateral adoption of 254
 - RPAI, universal adoption of 246
 - tax reform, potential costs of 54–5
- allocation of profit between countries 31–3
 - locations for allocating taxing rights see locations for taxing business profit
- Allowance for Corporate Equity (ACE) 23, 26, 271, 316, 321*b*
 - bias towards use of debt finance, and 26
 - CCCTB proposal, and 238*n*
 - economic rent as tax base of 24
 - interest 271
- anti-avoidance rules 13, 65, 100–3
 - controlled foreign company rules 103, 104
 - countries competing, and 104, 124
 - interest deduction limitation rules 102–3
 - transfer pricing rules 100–2
- arm's length principle 101–2
- avoidance 4–6
 - aggressive tax planning, reputational consequences of 5
 - BEPS project, and see BEPS project
 - criticisms of companies not paying 'fair share' of tax 4–5, 50–1, 117
 - designing taxes less prone to manipulation 5
 - economic efficiency, and 116–17
 - evasion, and 51
 - existing system not sufficiently robust to tax avoidance 117
 - meaning of 6, 51–2
 - perceived avoidance, consequences of 6, 50–1
 - profit shifting by see profit shifting
 - real responses, and 52–3
 - robustness of tax to see robustness of tax to avoidance
 - scale of tax avoidance on business profit 6
 - tax arbitrage, and 52, 53
 - see also* anti-avoidance rules
- basic choices in considering reform 175–87
 - degree of coordination required 176–9
 - incentives for individual countries to undertake unilateral reform 177–8
 - legal constraints to unilateral action 176–7
 - reducing/eliminating incentive for countries to compete 178–9
 - revenue neutrality and distributional issues 181–2
 - scope of reformed taxes 182–4
 - efficiency considerations 182–3
 - issues relating to scope 182
 - nature and level of threshold 183, 184
 - transition 179–81
- benefit principle 15
 - adoption of fees based on a business' footprint 286
 - business taxation, and 38–9, 58, 68–70
 - origin, and 135–6, 173
 - tax in market country, and 172, 173
- BEPS project 1, 5–6, 7, 56, 106–13
 - Action Plan 88–9, 102, 108
 - allocation of royalty income 134–5

- BEPS project (cont.)
- CFC rules 103, 126
 - CFC taxation to ensure the 'single-tax-principle' 153*n*
 - defensive rule on hybrids 153*n*
 - hybrid mismatch arrangements 111, 123
 - intellectual property 116
 - interest limitation rules 111, 121
 - patent box regimes 111, 116, 129, 240
 - risk allocation within corporate groups 193–4
 - allocation of taxing rights, and 111–13
 - criticisms 112–13
 - anti-avoidance rules 100
 - competitive fairness between businesses 39–40
 - distortions to real activities increasing as result of BEPS 116
 - effectiveness of BEPS measures 120*n*, 121–2
 - complexity of implementing legislation 123
 - failure to address countries' discontent over allocation of taxing rights 106
 - fairness in international taxation 38, 118
 - falls in average statutory tax rates, BEPS not slowing 10
 - goal, nature of 106
 - increasing revenue from taxing profit of multinationals 181
 - 'minimum standards' and aspirational recommendations 5
 - multilateral treaty facilitating amendment of existing bilateral treaties 87
 - origin basis, move towards 127
 - post-BEPS reform 127–30
 - problems with BEPS proposals 12–14
 - profit shifting
 - addressing 51, 117
 - definition of 51
 - effectiveness of BEPS proposals 117, 120–2
 - greater distortions to real business decisions 117
 - limiting opportunities for 12, 13, 45
 - profit, treatment of 19*n*
 - public disquiet about tax avoidance leading to 51
 - road to BEPS 107–8
 - RPAI, and 19*n*
 - single tax principle 38
 - target, guiding principle, and actions 108–10
 - tax avoidance, focus on 12
 - taxing profit of 'highly digitalized business' 7
 - value creation principle 106, 109, 111, 121, 128, 129
- bilateral tax treaties 86–8
- border tax adjustment (BTA) 274–9, 330
 - conditions for equivalence between destination-and origin-based cash flow tax 277–8
 - effects on exchange rates 275–7
 - impact on revenue 278
 - netting out of business-to-business transactions 292
 - transfer pricing abuse, origin-based taxation and 278–9
- business and investment income see active and passive income
- business-level and investor-level taxes 77–82
- business-level tax as backup for personal income tax 57–8, 59–68
- closed economy 59–65
 - backup for personal tax on capital income 60–5
 - backup for personal tax on labour income 59–60
 - business-level tax as useful element of tax on capital income 64–5
 - case for taxing capital income 61–3
 - whether capital income taxed in practice 62–4
 - open economy 65–77
 - personal and business-level taxes in small open economy (App 1) 335–6
 - taxation of non-residents by origin country 67
 - worldwide taxation by residence country 65–7
- business profit 22–33
 - allocation of profit between countries 31–3
 - CBIT see Comprehensive Business Income Tax (CBIT)
 - conventional base for tax on profit, nature of 23, 25
 - criteria for evaluating taxes on see criteria for evaluating taxes on business profit
 - defining 'profit' 23–31
 - cost of capital, economic rent, and cash flow taxation 23–8
 - equivalences to other taxes 28–30
 - rationales for taxes on see rationales for business-level taxes on profit
- business to business (B2B) transactions 185–6
 - DBCFT, and 327
- business to consumer (B2C) transactions 185
 - DBCFT, and 327
- capital, cost of see cost of capital
- capital income
 - business-level tax as useful element of tax on capital income 64–5
 - case for taxing 61–3
 - whether taxed in practice 62–4

- cash flow taxation 287
 - advocated by Meade Committee 26
 - DBCFT, and 268–71
 - see also* Destination Based Cash Flow Tax (DBCFT)
 - economic rent as tax base 24
 - profit, defining 23–8
 - properties of cash flow tax on investment incentives 25*t*
 - R-based cash flow tax see under R-base and R+F base
- closed economy 59–65
 - backup for personal tax on capital income 60–5
 - backup for personal tax on labour income 59–60
- Common Consolidated Corporate Tax Base (CCCTB) 134, 140, 141, 146, 151, 218, 258
- competition for economic activity and tax revenue 1–2
 - arguments in favour of competition, basis of 15*n*
 - business taxation and ‘benefit principle’ 38–9
 - competition over taxes 10–11
 - average statutory tax rates, continuous falls in 10–11, 11*f*
 - competitive features of a corporate tax regime 103–4
 - contest over allocation of taxing rights 6–8
 - developing countries see developing and lower income countries
 - digitalized businesses see digitalized businesses
 - value creation, debate on 8
 - equitable basis of allocation of taxing rights between countries, debate over 39
 - incentive compatibility, and 55–6
 - inter-nation equity, concept of 38–9
 - natural resources, exploitation of 39
 - redistributive tax allocation 39
 - revenues at stake 8–10
- Comprehensive Business Income Tax (CBIT) 23, 25
 - bias towards use of debt finance, and 26
 - tax base including normal return on debt 24
- consumers 73, 74, 83, 90, 90*b*, 169
 - allocation of taxing rights, presence of consumers and 105–6, 127
 - cross-border shopping 15
 - DBCFT, and 272, 273
 - digital services to 95, 118
 - fraud, and 187
 - indirect taxes, paying 30
 - relative immobility of final consumer 50, 185, 231, 240, 249, 251–2, 265
 - RPAL, and 215, 243, 247, 261–2, 265
 - sales to 185–6
 - VAT, and 30, 32, 37
- controlled foreign company (CFC) rules 13, 103, 104, 105, 122
 - BEPS Action Plan 103, 126
 - CFC taxation to ensure the ‘single-tax-principle’ 153*n*
 - European Union 124
 - intellectual property, and 103
 - lax CFC rules, effect of 124
 - passive income 103
 - UK, and 104
 - US, and 104
- corporate residence 96–7
 - DBCFT, and 293
 - definition 158
 - weak corporate residence tests 124
- corporation tax 22
 - applied generally to all incorporated businesses 183
 - average statutory corporation tax rates 11*f*
 - competitive features of a corporate tax regime 103–4
 - conventional corporate tax base, composition of 24
 - costs of collecting 53–4
 - digital companies see under digitalized businesses
 - falls in headline rate of 124–5
 - revenues from 9*f*
- cost of capital 23
 - meaning of 24*b*
 - opportunity cost of capital 271
- cost of goods sold, definition of 200*b*
- costs of collecting taxes see under administration of tax collection
- country of residence of owners as reform option 163–8
 - advantage of 163
 - pass-through treatment 163–5, 166–7
 - taxing dividends and capital gains received by shareholder 165–6, 167–8
- country of residence of parent company/business headquarters as reform option 151–62
 - evaluation 154–61
 - ease of administration 159–60
 - efficiency 154–6
 - fairness 156–7
 - incentive compatibility 160–1
 - robustness to avoidance 158–9
 - legislation and reform option 151–4

- criteria for evaluating taxes on business
 - profit 33–56
 - ease of administration see under
 - administration of tax collection
 - economic efficiency see economic efficiency
 - fairness see fairness
 - incentive compatibility see incentive compatibility
 - robustness to avoidance see tax avoidance
- cross-border shopping 15, 185, 285
- debt shifting 221, 242, 290
- depreciation 25, 62
 - cost of goods sold, and 200*b*
 - depreciation allowances 124, 150
 - depreciation deductions 287, 332
 - depreciation provisions 247, 259
 - depreciation rate 114
 - depreciation rules 268
 - depreciation schedules 271, 287, 294
 - relief for 26, 26*b*, 270–1
- destination, meaning of 90*b*
- destination country 16, 18
 - as reform option 168–73
 - ability to pay 172
 - advantages of relative immobility of place of destination 171
 - benefit principle 172, 173
 - fairness 171–2, 173
 - market creating value in and of itself 170
 - relative immobility of individual customers 170–1
- DBCFT, and 271–3
- destination principle, definition of 184–6
 - place where business makes sales to third parties, as 32
- identifying destination 184–7
 - OECD VAT/GST Guidelines 184–6
 - sales to businesses and sales to consumers 185–6
 - taxation of goods as opposed to services 185
 - use of proxies to establish destination 184–5
- market countries as countries of origin 169–70
 - jurisdiction of ‘the market’ where customer-based intangibles reside 169
 - new products and services 169–70
- shifting basis of taxation to location of sale or users, advantages of 11–12
- Destination Based Cash Flow Tax (DBCFT) 172, 173, 175, 177, 180, 267–333
 - DBCFT in outline 268–79
 - border adjustments 274–9
 - cash flow taxation 268–71
 - destination basis 271–3
 - equivalence with a VAT with matching reduction in wage taxes 273–4
 - evaluating DBCFT see Destination Based Cash Flow Tax (DBCFT), evaluation of
 - illustration of application of the DBCFT 272*t*
 - implementation see Destination Based Cash Flow Tax (DBCFT), implementation of
 - intangible assets 285, 290
 - interest 287, 297, 299
 - making operational relevant notion of ‘destination’ 184
 - problems with 19
 - RPAI advantage over 190
 - sales to businesses and sales to consumers 185–6, 187
 - setting scope of 182–3
 - taxing financial flows see taxing financial flows
 - Destination Based Cash Flow Tax (DBCFT), evaluation of 279–300
 - unilateral adoption 295–300
 - ease of administration 298
 - economic efficiency 295–6
 - fairness 296
 - incentive compatibility 298–300
 - robustness to avoidance 296–8
 - universal adoption 279–95
 - ease of administration 294
 - economic efficiency 279–83
 - fairness 283–90
 - incentive compatibility 295
 - robustness to avoidance 290–4
- Destination Based Cash Flow Tax (DBCFT), implementation of 317–33
 - losses 321–7
 - domestic 321–3, 322*b*
 - financial businesses 325–7
 - illustration of effects of not receiving relief for expenditure 324*t*
 - international 323–5
 - practical issues 319–33
 - bilateral double tax conventions and WTO 328–30
 - collection on a destination basis 327–8
 - debt versus equity under an R+F base 320–1
 - implementing alternative approach, experience of VAT and 319
 - losses 321–7
 - other issues in comparing the two approaches 331–3
 - real vs financial flows under an R base 320–1
 - transitional issues 330–1

- two economically equivalent reforms 317–19
- advantages and disadvantages of VAT 318
- design and implementation problems same for both approaches 318
- transition costs reduced by gradual introduction of reform 318–19
- developing and lower income countries
 - administrative capacity, lack of 34, 54, 70, 77
 - allocation of taxing rights
 - allocating greater taxing rights to less well-off countries 39
 - concerns over 1, 6–7
 - business tax reform 289
 - costs of collecting taxes 54
 - current tax regime
 - aggressive international tax competition, developing countries exposed to 290
 - favouring developed over developing countries 118, 290
 - DBCFT, and 288, 289–90
 - extractive industries, reliance on 289
 - greater weakness of tax administrations 289–90
 - non-compliance 289
 - natural resources 288–9
 - passive income, and 118
 - reasons for lower tax revenues in lower income countries 77
 - revenue mobilization as key aim 34*n*, 77
 - source-based taxation of royalty payments under UN Model Treaty 96
 - taxing business profit 69–70
 - highly digitalized businesses 7
 - technology transfer from industrialized countries, dependency on 96
- digitalized businesses
 - collecting a ‘fair share’ of tax on profits, concerns over 1–2, 7
 - contribution made by users of digital services 7
 - European Commission proposals to tax revenue, objections to 7
 - objections to special treatment of 7
 - reform, and 127*n*
 - taxing large digital companies in location of their users 76
 - traditional companies carrying heavier tax burden than digital ones 117
 - use of highly mobile intangible assets 7*n*
- direct tax, meaning of 30
- dividends 90
 - cross-border direct investment, exemption of dividends from 98
 - distributing profit as 44, 103
- European Union 88
- foreign direct investment, from 97
- foreign source dividends
 - exemption of 100, 124
 - importance of treatment of 99
- OECD Model Treaty 96
- tax credits on 80
- taxation of 17, 66, 96, 164–5, 167–8, 173
 - personal-level tax 77, 79
- UK 99, 124
- US 99, 153, 168
- domestic law as source of international tax regime 86–7
- domestic personal taxes 17
- double non-taxation 38, 56
- double taxation 1, 38
 - bilateral double tax conventions (DTCs) 86–8
 - allocating taxing rights over types of income between two countries 86–7
 - DBCFT, and 328–30
 - business-level and investor-level taxes 77–82
 - cooperation between countries 56
 - multilateral treaties addressing 87
 - nature of 77, 79
 - OECD Model Treaty used in bilateral double tax treaties 5, 176
 - passive income, treatment of 100
 - relief for 77–8, 79
 - integration of personal and corporate levels of tax 79–81
 - unilateral measures in domestic laws addressing 86
- economic efficiency 17–18, 41–50
 - country of residence of parent company/ headquarters as reform option 154–6
 - DBCFT, unilateral adoption of 295–6
 - DBCFT, universal adoption of 279–83
 - form of financing 283
 - investment neutrality of DBCFT 281*t*
 - location of investment 279–83
 - scale of investment 283
 - destination country as reform option 173
 - economic inefficiencies in taxing international profit 44–6
 - distortion of competition between businesses 45
 - location of economic activities 44
 - trade-off between economic efficiency and profit shifting 45
 - economic inefficiencies in taxing profit 43–4
 - detering business from undertaking new investment projects 43
 - incentive to finance activities by borrowing 43

- economic efficiency (cont.)
 - evaluating existing regime 113–15
 - economic efficiency and tax avoidance 116–17
 - measuring economic inefficiencies 113–16
 - formulary apportionment, and 143–4
 - fundamentals 41–2
 - measuring economic inefficiencies 113–16
 - choice of legal form, and whether to incorporate 115
 - distortions to economic behaviour creating costs for society as a whole 116
 - estimating the excess burden 115–16
 - location of investment and economic activity 114
 - taxes on profit raising the cost of capital 114
 - use of debt and equity finance 115
 - optimal tax theory, guidance for 46–9
 - maximizing welfare of domestic residents in small open economies 48–9, 50
 - production efficiency theorem, Diamond and Mirrlees' 46–8, 49
 - Pareto efficiency 41
 - RPAI, unilateral adoption of 251–3
 - RPAI, universal adoption of 238–41
 - intermediate businesses 240–1
 - location decisions 239–40
 - tax base 238–9
 - taxing economic rent see under economic rent
- economic profit see economic rent
- economic rent
 - alternative methods of taxing 26*b*
 - economic rent in anticipation of future profit 71
 - existing taxes not generally falling on 299
 - location-specific economic rent 72–5, 138
 - auctioning rights to produce or sell goods/services 74*n*
 - difficulties in designing taxes based on 74–5
 - geographical clustering of businesses in same sector 72
 - low wage local labour force 72–3
 - natural resources, tax on 72, 75
 - other location-specific factors 75–6
 - place where final good or service sold 73
 - rent not specific to any location 73–4
 - meaning of 17, 23, 24*b*
 - quasi-rents 73
 - requirements for generating 24*b*
 - residual profit, whether equivalent to 202*b*
 - taxing economic rent 25–8, 49–50, 70–2
 - effects of 49
 - generally progressive nature of 71
 - levying tax in place of destination or market 75–6
 - location-specific economic rent, and 72–5
 - prices unchanged 50
 - tax on economic rent as special case 71
 - environmental pollution 41–2
 - European Union
 - BEPS, and 88–9, 112
 - CCCTB 134, 140, 141, 146, 151, 218, 258
 - CFC rules 103, 104
 - Code of Conduct for Business Taxation 107
 - Court of Justice decisions on domestic
 - international tax regimes 89, 103, 107, 177
 - criticisms of current tax regime 117
 - EU tax legislation 88, 124
 - formulary apportionment 19, 140–1, 234
 - fundamental freedoms of Internal Market 89
 - impact of EU law on domestic international
 - tax law of Member States 88–9
 - interest 88, 124
 - one-stop-shop approach, adoption of 327
 - passive income 100
 - VAT 32–3, 185
 - exchange rates
 - BTA effects on 276
 - DBCFT, and 275–7, 280, 282–4, 295, 330
 - fairness 34–40
 - business taxation and benefit principle 38–9
 - competitive fairness between
 - businesses 39–40
 - country of residence of parent company/
 - headquarters as reform option 156–7
 - DBCFT, unilateral adoption of 296
 - DBCFT, universal adoption of 283–90
 - developing countries 289–90
 - incidence of DBCFT 283–5
 - inter-nation equity 286–8
 - destination country as reform
 - option 171–2, 173
 - existing regime 117–19
 - digital companies selling without incurring corporation tax 118
 - existing system not sufficiently robust to tax avoidance 117
 - multinationals paying lower rates of tax than small domestic businesses 117
 - regime favouring developed over developing countries 118
 - traditional companies carrying heavier tax burden than digital ones 117
 - fair taxation of individuals vs fair taxation of
 - businesses 34–7
 - effective incidence of taxes on profit 35*b*

- formulary apportionment, and 145
 - redistributive tax allocation 39
 - RPAI, unilateral adoption of 255
 - RPAI, universal adoption of 247–8
 - taxation according to ‘ability to pay’ 37–8
- financial crisis (2007–08) 4
 - extreme levels of leverage of banks 43
- formulary apportionment
 - ease of administration 145–7
 - economic efficiency 143–4
 - European Union 19, 140–1, 234
 - fairness 145
 - IMF 140
 - incentive compatibility, and 149–50
 - OECD 140
 - other RPA proposals, and 234–5, 235*t*
 - robustness to avoidance 145–7
 - adoption of same formulary apportionment, benefits of 145–6
 - highly profitable business selling to less profitable distributor in low tax jurisdiction 292
 - problems when system not common across all countries 146–7
 - UN 140
 - unitary taxation, and 139–50
 - evaluation of formulary apportionment 141–50
 - US 139, 234
- GATS 87
- GATT 87
- General and Administrative (G&A) costs 189, 200, 215
 - definition of 200*b*
- Global Anti-Base Erosion (GloBE)
 - proposal 99, 122, 126–8, 129–30, 153–4, 155*n*
- Global Intangible Low-Taxed Income (GILTI)
 - provision 66–7, 99, 153, 154, 160
- goodwill/installed customer base 169
- Google 5
- incentive compatibility 55–6
 - concept of 55
 - country of residence of parent company/ headquarters as reform option 160–1
 - DBCFT, unilateral adoption of 298–300
 - DBCFT, universal adoption of 295
 - destination country as reform option 173
 - existing regime 123–7
 - coordination halting/slowing competitive process 126–7, 129
 - costs of moving to low tax country 125–6
 - existing system creating conditions for countries to compete 123–4
 - fall in headline corporation tax rate 125
 - impact of competition 124
 - lax anti-avoidance measures 124
 - formulary apportionment, and 149–50
 - RPAI, unilateral adoption of 255–6
 - RPAI, universal adoption of 248–50
 - tax competition 55–6
 - tax reform, and 182
- incidence of tax 23
 - DBCFT, incidence of 283–5
 - effective incidence of taxes on profit 35*b*
 - tax on pure economic rent, and 27
- indirect tax, meaning of 30
- individual/personal income taxation 22
 - income tax, and see business-level tax as backup for personal income tax
 - investor-level taxes, and 77–82
 - double taxation, and see double taxation
 - elements of the taxation of savings 63
 - fair taxation of individuals vs fair taxation of businesses 34–7
 - personal and business-level taxes in small open economy (App 1) 335–6
 - progressivity, and 30, 34–7
 - taxation according to ability to pay, fairness and 37–8, 58
 - taxation of non-residents by origin country 67
 - worldwide taxation by residence country, and 65–7
- inframarginal return see economic rent
- intangible assets 185, 186, 237
 - customer-based intangibles 169
 - DBCFT, under 285, 290
 - exclusion of 221
 - installed customer base 169
 - key sources of profit, as 196
 - locating in low tax countries 242
 - marketing intangibles, measuring return to 170
 - payments for use of 207
 - proprietary intangibles 195–6
 - RPAI, under 242, 246, 253, 263
 - valuing 197–8
 - VAT Guidelines 185
- intellectual property 13, 24*b*, 96, 98, 105, 108
 - BEPS Action Plan 116
 - CFC rules, and 103
 - locating in low tax countries 103
 - mobile factor, as 122, 123, 124
 - passive income-generating assets, as 99
 - patent box regimes, and 104, 129
 - RPAI, under 240, 241

- interest
 - BEPS Action Plan
 - interest deductibility rules cap 121
 - interest limitation rules 111
 - DBCFT, under 287, 297, 299
 - European Union 88, 124
 - 'excessive' interest payments 111
 - foreign-source interest 100
 - interest barriers 103
 - interest deduction limitation rules 13, 102–3, 124, 125
 - interest expense 220–1
 - allocation of 219
 - allocation of third party interest expense 221
 - interest paid on third party debt 221
 - non-allocable cost 214
 - OECD, and 220–1
 - principal tool of tax planners, as 220
 - R-base, under 269
 - interest payments 43
 - ACE, under 271
 - deduction of 23, 43, 55, 91, 178, 221, 238, 247, 271, 287, 299
 - mark-up on interest rate, banks' 63
 - non-resident, to 90*b*
 - notional interest deductions 124
 - OECD Model Treaty, interest to non-residents and 96
 - passive income, as 69, 90
 - R-based cash flow tax, under 269, 290
 - RPAI, and
 - cost of interest payments on within-company debt 242
 - interest deductibility 247
 - third party interest costs, allocation of 242
 - tax on 63
 - within-group interest payments 133, 242
 - see also* taxing financial flows
- inter-nation equity 286–8
- International Monetary Fund (IMF) 119
 - formulary apportionment 140
- international tax regime, current 85–130
 - BEPS project see BEPS project
 - central features of current regime 89–93
 - categories of income 90–1
 - residence and source 90
 - separate accounting 91–2
 - evaluating current regime 113–27
 - ease of administration see under
 - administration of tax collection
 - economic efficiency see under economic efficiency
 - fairness see under fairness
 - incentive compatibility see incentive compatibility
 - robustness to avoidance see under tax avoidance
 - general trends in current regime 94–106
 - anti-avoidance rules see
 - anti-avoidance rules
 - competitive features of a corporate tax regime 103–4
 - allocation of taxing rights 104–6
 - post-BEPS reform see post-BEPS reform
 - sources 86–9
 - domestic law and bilateral tax treaties 86–8
 - impact of EU law 88–9
- inversions 44
- investment and business income see active and passive income
- investor-level and business-level taxes 77–82
- invoice-credit method of tax collection 28*n*
- key issues in taxing profit 21–83
 - business profit, nature of see business profit
 - locations for taxing business profit 16–18
- marginal investments 24*b*
- market country see destination country; see under destination country as reform option
- Meade Committee 26, 28*n*, 30*n*, 62, 65*n*, 268*n*, 269, 300–1
- Mirrlees Review 61–2, 63*n*, 183*n*
- multinational business, taxation of profit of see taxing business profit
- natural resources 18*n*
 - developing countries
 - national asset/important source of revenue, as 288, 289
 - natural resources largely exported 288
 - location-specific economic rent, and 72
 - national asset, as 288
 - profit generated by exploiting fixed natural resources 39
 - tax on 72, 75
- net present value 43
- normal return
 - cost of capital, as 24*b*
 - meaning of 17, 23, 24*b*
 - opportunity cost of investment, as 24*b*
 - profit over and above see economic rent
- one-stop-shop approach 327–8
- open economies 65–77
 - large open economy affecting world rate of return on its own 79

- maximizing welfare of domestic residents in
 - small open economies 48–9, 50
- meaning of 78
- small open economy
 - business-level and investor-level taxes, and 78–82
 - business-level and personal level taxes in (App 1) 335–6
 - meaning of 78
- taxation of non-residents by origin
 - country 67
- worldwide taxation by residence
 - country 65–7
- opportunity cost
 - equity capital, of see Allowance for Corporate Equity (ACE)
 - normal return, and 24*b*
 - opportunity cost of capital 271
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
 - BEPS project on combating tax avoidance see BEPS project
 - cooperation between countries 56
 - destination principle 184–6
 - fairness, and 117
 - formulary apportionment 140
 - minimum tax based on parent company's location, considering 67
- Model Treaty 5, 87–8, 176–7, 263
 - arm's length principle 101–2
 - definition of taxes 328
 - interest 96
 - profit attribution rules 193*n*
 - passive income 90, 96
 - royalty payments 96
 - soft law instrument, as 176
 - source-based taxation 96–8
 - Transfer Pricing Guidelines 101–2
 - transfer pricing rules 193*n*
- Pillar I proposal 127, 128, 130, 140, 186, 236–7, 327, 329
- Pillar II proposal 99, 122, 126–8, 129–30, 153–4, 155*n*
- patent box regimes 129
- profit splits
 - OECD profit splits and RPA
 - schemes: similarity and differences 197–9
 - profit splits under OECD guidelines 195–7
- Revised Guidance on the Application of the Transactional Profit Split Method 196–8
- RPAI, current proposals drawing on 19
- taxing rights should be primarily related to economic substance 38
- Transfer Pricing Guidelines 6, 101–2, 195, 215
- Unified Approach
 - OECD Secretariat's proposal for 236–7, 263, 329
- value creation, aligning profit with 194
- VAT/GST Guidelines 184–6
 - B2C transactions 185
 - destination principle 184–6
 - intangible assets 185
 - sales to businesses and sales to consumers 185–6
 - taxation of goods as opposed to services 185
 - use of proxies to establish destination 184–5
- optimal tax theory see under economic efficiency
- origin country 16, 132–8
 - determining profit allocated to each business element as key issue 32
 - factors determining profit as relatively mobile 17–18
 - market countries as countries of origin 169–70
 - meaning of 90*b*
 - place where activities and assets of business are located, as 31
 - taxation of non-residents by origin country 67
- origin country as reform option 131–51
 - definitional issues 141–3
 - allocating profit 142–3
 - apportionment factors, choice of 142
 - nature and definition of multinational business 141–2
 - formulary apportionment, evaluation of 141–50
 - definitional issues 141–3
 - ease of administration 147–9
 - efficiency 143–4
 - fairness 145
 - incentive compatibility 149–50
 - robustness to avoidance 146–7
- fundamentals of the origin basis 132–8
 - fundamental inefficiencies under origin principle 134–5
 - location-specific rents 138–9
 - origin and ability to pay 136–7
 - origin and benefit principle 135–6, 173
 - origin and separate entity approach 133–4
 - tax exporting 137–8
 - transition costs 138
- unitary taxation and formulary apportionment 139–50
 - evaluation of formulary apportionment 141–50
 - US Practice, the OECD approach, and the CCCTB project 139–41

- Pareto efficiency 41
- partnerships 22, 38
- passive income
 - active and passive income, treatment of 91–2, 133
 - allocation rules not following value creation concept 109
 - definition 90
 - developing countries, and 118
 - DTCs, under 100
 - European Union 100
 - foreign income 97
 - intellectual property 99
 - interest, as 69, 90
 - OECD Model Treaty 90, 96
 - passive income-generating assets held in low tax countries 99, 118
 - primarily taxed in country of residence 13, 91
 - royalty payments, as 69
 - significant part of profit relating to 69
 - source-based taxation, and 95–6, 100
 - UN Model Treaty 95–6
 - withholding taxes on passive income paid to non-resident companies 100
- pass-through taxation 22, 38, 60, 64, 183–4
 - country of residence of owners as reform option 163–5, 166–7
 - US, in see under United States (US)
- patent box regimes 104, 109, 240
 - BEPS Action Plan 111, 116, 129, 240
 - intellectual property, and 104, 129
 - Pillar II, and 129
 - proliferation of 124
 - UK, and 124, 129
- Permanent Establishment (PE) rules 262
 - changed role under RPAI 192–3
- personal tax see individual/personal income taxation
- Pigouvian taxes 42
- place of residence of owners of business 16, 18
 - taxing owners directly 31
- place of residence of parent company/ headquarters of business 16
 - challenging information requirements 31
- post-BEPS reform 127–30
 - comment 128–9
 - proposed reform 127–8
- production
 - differences in taxation in alternative locations for production 44
 - intermediate goods 200*n*
 - new products and services 169–70
 - product versus product line composition 244–5
 - production efficiency theorem, Diamond and Mirrlees' 46–8, 49
- profit
 - allocation of profit between countries see under business profit
 - business profit see business profit
 - defining profit see under business profit
 - economic rent see economic rent
 - key issues in taxing profit see key issues in taxing profit
 - taxable profit see taxable profit
 - taxing profit see taxing business profit
- profit shifting 2, 4–6, 18, 171
 - anti-avoidance rules 13
 - BEPS project, and see BEPS project
 - controlled foreign company rules, and 13
 - criticisms of companies not paying 'fair share' of tax 4–5, 50–1, 117
 - DBCFT, and 290
 - economic inefficiencies and deadweight costs resulting from 54
 - intangibles, transferring 7*n*
 - taking advantage of differences in tax rates between jurisdictions 52
 - tax rates/inducements attracting mobile profit 10
 - trade-off between economic efficiency and profit shifting 45
- profit splits
 - OECD profit splits and RPA schemes: similarity and differences 197–9
 - profit splits under OECD guidelines 195–7
- progressivity 30
 - fair taxation of individuals vs fair taxation of businesses 34–7
 - personal income tax schedule, and 30
 - progressive tax structure, fairness and 34–7
- Public Accounts Committee, UK 4–5, 51*n*
- R base and R+F base
 - applying R base for financial transactions with non-financial businesses 312–14
 - comparing R and R+F bases for transactions between entities 304–7
 - debt versus equity under an R+F base 320–1
 - effects of implementing a full R+F base on all taxed entities 309–12
 - R base and R+F base, choice between 300–1
 - elements of R and R+F base taxation 301*t*
 - R-based cash flow 26, 28, 269, 270, 273, 290, 294
 - treatment of financial flows under R base 303*t*, 304

- treatment of financial flows under R+F base 301–3, 302*t*, 303*t*, 308*t*
- treatment of international financial flows under R base 313
- treatment of international financial flows under R+F base 311*t*
- rationales for business-level taxes on profit 57–77
 - absence of alternative sources of revenue 76–7
 - backup for personal income tax see business-level tax as backup for personal income tax
 - benefit principle see benefit principle
 - possibility of a tax that meets the evaluative criteria 58, 70–6
 - location-specific economic rent 72–5
 - other location-specific factors 75–6
 - taxation of rents 70–2
- redistributive tax allocation 39
- reform of taxing business profit 17–18
 - basic choices in see basic choices in considering reform
 - case for taxing business profit 15
 - fundamental reform options
 - country of residence of owners see country of residence of owners as reform option
 - country of residence of parent company see country of residence of parent company/business headquarters as reform option
 - good international tax system/‘good tax’, criteria for 14–15
 - locations for taxing business profit 16–18
 - political acceptability of any reform 176
 - principled and comprehensive approach to 14–16
- reform, post-BEPS see post-BEPS reform
- remote sales 219–20, 242*n*
- rent see economic rent
- residence, meaning of 90*b*
- residence-based taxation 96–9
 - corporate residence 96–7
 - test relying on formal legal criteria 96
 - test relying on substantive criteria 96–7
 - residence tax on foreign source income 97–9
 - credit systems 97–8, 99
 - exemption systems 98–9
 - worldwide or a territorial systems of taxation 98–9
- residual gross income (RGI) see under Residual Profit Allocation by Income (RPAI)
- Residual Profit Allocation by Income (RPAI) 173, 175, 177, 180, 189–265
 - algebra of RPAI (App 2) 337–8
 - appeal of RPAI 190–1
 - comparing other approaches see Residual Profit Allocation by Income (RPAI) compared with other approaches
 - definitions of costs 200*b*
 - ‘entrepreneurial’ model 193
 - evaluating RPAI see Residual Profit Allocation by Income (RPAI), evaluation of
 - further issues 218–25
 - definition of the tax base 218–19
 - interest expense 220–1
 - rates at which residual and routine profit taxed 218
 - routine and residual profit in case of remote sales 219–20
 - taxable losses 221–5
- gradual move towards profit splits 194–9
 - OECD profit splits and RPA schemes: similarity and differences 197–9
 - profit splits under OECD guidelines 195–7
- implementation 256–63
 - boundaries of the multinational 258–9
 - collecting tax on destination basis 260–2
 - defining the tax base 259–60
 - expansion into new markets 262–3
 - scope 256–8
 - treaties 263
- intangible assets 242, 246, 253, 263
- intellectual property 240, 241
- making operational relevant notion of ‘destination’ 184
- non-allocable costs 214–17
 - apportionment of non-allocable costs with mark-up, by RGI 216*t*
- OECD proposals drawing on 19
- Permanent Establishment (PE) rules, changed role of 192–3
 - PE rules for residual profit purposes abandoned 193
- residual gross income (RGI) 212–14
 - calculating residual gross income 214*t*
 - within-group transactions of goods: cost of goods sold 213*t*
- residual profit 210–18, 217*t*
 - allocation of 19*n*, 192
 - alternative allocations of see Residual Profit Allocation by Income (RPAI) compared with other approaches
 - bottom-up approach 192, 210–17
 - top-down approach 217*t*
 - routine and residual profit 218*t*
 - top-down approach 192, 217–18
- residual gross income (RGI) 212–14
- Residual Profit Allocation (RPA) regimes 189

- Residual Profit Allocation by Income (RPAI) (cont.)
 - applying to all multinationals 197
 - basic approach of 197
 - routine profit 201–10, 210*t*
 - establishing routine profit 191
 - example: establishing routine profit 204*t*
 - example: routine profit 209*t*
 - measuring routine profit under RPAI 203–10
 - nature of routine profit 201–2
 - routine activity, and 201*n*
 - routine and residual profit 218*t*
 - where routine profit deemed to arise 203
 - whether equivalent to normal return 202*b*
 - sales to businesses and sales to consumers 185–6
 - setting scope of 182–3
 - taxable losses 221–5
 - potential allocation of tax base with low profit and a loss 224*t*
 - types of losses 221–2
- Residual Profit Allocation by Income (RPAI)
 - compared with other approaches 225–37
 - alternative allocations of residual profit 225–32
 - allocation of residual profit by costs 231
 - allocation of residual profit by different factors 226*t*
 - allocation of residual profit by sales revenue 226–30
 - allocation of residual profit by users of digital services 231–2
 - allow countries to negotiate allocation of residual profit 232
 - other RPA proposals 232–7
 - applying Avi-Yonah, Clausing, Durst approach 233*t*
 - Avi-Yonah et al and Luckhaupt et al 232–3
 - formulary apportionment 234–5
 - formulary apportionment based on sales 235*t*
 - minimum tax in destination country 235–6
 - OECD Secretariat's proposed 'Unified Approach' 236–7
- Residual Profit Allocation by Income (RPAI),
 - evaluation of 237–56
 - unilateral adoption 250–6
 - ease of administration 254
 - economic efficiency 251–3
 - fairness 255
 - incentive compatibility 255–6
 - robustness to avoidance 253–4
 - universal adoption 238–50
 - ease of administration 246
 - economic efficiency 238–41
 - fairness 247–8
 - incentive compatibility 248–50
 - robustness to avoidance 241–6
 - revenue neutrality 181–2
 - risk premium 24*b*
 - robustness of tax to avoidance 50–3
 - country of residence of parent company/headquarters as reform option 158–9
 - DBCFT, unilateral adoption of 296–8
 - DBCFT, universal adoption of 290–4
 - destination country as reform option 173
 - current regime 119–21
 - critical importance of tax avoidance 120
 - size of avoidance by multinational companies 119–20
 - formulary apportionment, and 145–7
 - adoption of same formulary apportionment, benefits of 145–6
 - problems when system not common across all countries 146–7
 - RPAI, unilateral adoption of 253–4
 - RPAI, universal adoption of 241–6
 - avoidance opportunities addressed by RPAI 241–3
 - debt shifting 242
 - locating IP in low tax countries 242
 - product versus product line composition 244–5
 - remaining disputes 245–6
 - remaining or new avoidance opportunities under RPAI 243
 - third party distributors 243–4
 - transfer pricing 242–3
 - routine profit see under Residual Profit Allocation by Income (RPAI)
 - royalty payments 98, 133
 - DBCFT, under 297
 - European Union 88
 - intangible asset, use of 253
 - intellectual property 13
 - non-resident, to 90*b*
 - OECD Model Treaty 88
 - source-based taxation of royalty payments not permitted 96
 - passive income, as 69
 - source-based taxation of 96
 - UN Model Treaty 88
 - source-based taxation of royalty payments 96
 - within-company royalty payments 242
- sales and marketing costs, definition of 200*b*
- sales to businesses and sales to consumers 185–6
- separate entity approach 133–4

- single tax principle 38
- soft law 86, 176
- source 16*n*
 - meaning of 90*b*
- source-based taxation 94–6
 - active and passive income 94–6
 - OECD Model Treaty 96–8
 - passive income, treatment of 95–6, 100
 - royalty payments, source-based taxation of 96
- subtraction method of tax collection 28*n*
- supernormal profit see economic rent

- tax arbitrage 52, 53
- tax avoidance see avoidance; robustness of tax to avoidance
- tax codes 13
- tax evasion 6, 51
- tax exporting 137–8
- tax on consumption 24*b*
- taxing financial flows 300–16
 - international considerations 309–16
 - applying R base for financial transactions with non-financial businesses 312–14
 - effects of implementing a full R+F base on all taxed entities 309–12
 - shifting the tax base to place of destination, consequences of 312
 - taxing cross-border lending to individuals/entities not subject to the tax 314
 - treatment of financial services under VAT plus payroll subsidy approach 315–16
 - treatment of international financial flows under R base 313
 - treatment of international financial flows under R+F base 311*t*
 - unilateral adoption 314–15
 - R base and an R+F base, choice between 300–1
 - elements of R and R+F base taxation 301*t*
 - transactions between taxable entities 301–7
 - banks charging borrowers through fees not interest 306
 - comparing R and R+F bases for transactions between entities 304–7
 - deferral of tax payment 305–6
 - expenses incurred by the bank 305
 - implementation issues 307
 - negative tax base 305
 - treatment of financial flows under R base 303*t*, 304
 - treatment of financial flows under R+F base 301–3, 302*t*, 303*t*
 - transactions with individuals and tax exempt entities 307–9
 - financial and non-financial businesses 309
 - negative tax base 308
 - treatment of financial flows under R+F base: tax exempt borrower 308*t*
- third party distributors 243–4
- transfer pricing 242–3
 - OECD Model Treaty 193*n*
 - OECD Transfer Pricing Guidelines 6, 101–2, 195, 215
 - transfer pricing abuse 278–9
 - transfer pricing rules 13, 100–2
 - arm's length principle 101–2
 - continued weakness of transfer pricing rules, BEPS and 121
- transition
 - 'big bang' approach or gradual implementation 180–1
 - costs 138, 179–80

- United Kingdom (UK)
 - anti-avoidance rules 124–5
 - BEPS Action Plan, and 123, 125
 - CFC rules 104, 124–5
 - corporation tax, cost of collecting 122*n*
 - Diverted Profits Tax 124–5
 - dividends 99, 124
 - foreign source dividends/income 99
 - highly digitalized businesses, taxing 7
 - hybrid mismatch arrangements 123
 - incentive compatibility 124–5
 - interest deductibility 123, 124–5
 - patent box regimes 124, 129
 - territorial system, operating 99
- United Nations
 - formulary apportionment 140
 - Model Treaty 6*n*, 88
 - fairness to developing countries, and 118
 - passive income 95–6
 - source-based taxation of royalty payments 96
- United States
 - allocation of taxing rights 6–7
 - anti-inversion rules 44, 160
 - CBIT 23
 - CFC legislation, introduction of 153*n*
 - CFC rules (Sub-Part F) 103, 104
 - DBCFT, and 293
 - dividends 99, 153, 168
 - FATCA 66*n*, 160
 - foreign source dividends 99, 153
 - exemption of 124
 - formulary apportionment 139, 234
 - highly digitalized businesses, objecting to other countries taxing 7

- United States (cont.)
 - Limited Liability Companies 22, 164
 - Model Treaty 88
 - pass-through taxation 22, 183
 - S-Corporations 22, 38, 60*n*, 164, 165*n*, 166*n*, 183*n*
 - corporation tax 183
 - targeting non-compliance by US taxpayers using foreign accounts 66*n*
- Value Added Tax (VAT) 18, 22, 175
 - advantages and disadvantages of VAT 318
 - competitive fairness between businesses, and 40
 - DBCFT, and 272
 - DBCFT equivalent by VAT-based approach see under Destination Based Cash Flow Tax (DBCFT), implementation of
 - destination principle 184–6
 - destination basis, tax typically levied on 32–3
 - use of proxies to determine jurisdiction of taxation 184–5
 - equivalences to other taxes, and 28–30, 273–4
 - equivalent tax bases in a closed economy 28*b*
 - European system 185
 - evasion 294
 - increases in 276–7
 - indirect tax, as 30
 - methods of collection 28*n*
 - normally applied to all businesses over certain size threshold 183
 - OECD VAT/GST Guidelines 184–6
 - R-based cash flow tax, and 30
 - reduced rates on some items 285*n*
 - sales to businesses and sales to consumers 185–6
 - tax on sales in a particular jurisdiction, as 76
 - threshold for 183–4
 - treatment of financial services under VAT plus payroll subsidy approach 315–16
 - value added as base for 18, 28
 - value added as defined for VAT, meaning of 30 see also taxing financial flows
 - value creation 110, 143
 - aligning profit with 194
 - BEPS, and 106, 109, 111, 121, 128, 129
 - debate on 8
 - passive income allocation rules, and 109
- World Trade Organisation 87, 177
 - DBCFT, and 329–30